

Q&A

Is there somewhere the band can get dressed before hand?

Unfortunately we do not have an area that bands can ready. We recommend using one of our trusted suppliers where possible as they will be familiar with the operations at Long Furlong Barn.

Can Circa Events provide a meal for our Band or DJ?

Yes! If you would like Circa Events to provide a meal for your band or DJ, please get in touch with them directly for a quote.

Is there an area for the band to rest and have a break during sets?

Unfortunately not, although couples are quite happy if they retire into the Cartshed to eat or have a drink. Some prefer to enjoy the grounds outside or simply stay where they are!

How long do the band or DJ have to set up before the first set?

It really depends on the number guests and your plan for the day. Please refer to the order of the day examples detailed in your essential information pack to provide your band or DJ and indication of when they can arrive to set up.

Can I have a musician playing in the courtyard after the ceremony

Of course! We have various PowerPoints around the courtyard should your musician need one.
